

St. Christopher's Inn, located in Garrison, NY, a busy residential recovery facility is looking for an experienced, forward-thinking and skilled Cook who is passionate and creative. The ideal candidate for this position will be dependable and creative in our large commercial kitchen. As part of a team, this person will be responsible for working with other team members, preparing meals for our clients, and partnering with the Food Service Director to monitor inventory and come up with new menu items. If you are a passionate food service professional, desire to work in a place with a strong mission and purpose and have prior experience in the industry (as a cook or chef, etc.), we would like you to consider our open position.

If you are tired of regularly working nights and unpredictable shifts, and want to be part of a dynamic, mission-driven team, we invite you to apply today.

Experience a must! Culinary degree preferred.

What We Offer:

We believe in affording our team with the same level of service that we strive to deliver to our clients. We are committed to providing extensive training and educational support that allows our team members to achieve the very highest levels of professionalism and open the door to increased opportunities for future career growth. In addition, medical and dental insurance, health reimbursement account, 401(k) with match and paid time-off. Salary will be $40-42,500 commensurate with experience.

We will be accepting rolling application until the position is filled.

We are more than just an equal opportunity employer and enthusiastically celebrate the powerful and profound diversity of our team.
